VOLUME 15, NUMBER 8

Timely Tidbits ...

Vote November 6

Linda Choate, Romulus City Clerk, and Rendell Wooden, Election Clerk, would like to remind everyone that the polls will be open Tuesday, November 6, from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Voters will face decisions regarding the offices of mayor, clerk, and treasurer, as well as seven council seats.

The only proposal on the ballot is a 1.5-mill increase for Wayne County Community College.

Recreation Programs

The City of Romulus Department of Parks and Recreation is now accepting registrations for a number of programs – including dance (ballet, jazz, and tap), clogging, gymnastics, karate, and youth indoor track – that begin later this month, as well as a winter youth basketball league that is also forming. For more information, step in at the Recreation Center (36515 Bibbins) and pick up a flyer or call 734-942-6852.

Little League, Heroes, and Goodfellows

The next edition of the monthly Mayor's Chair program will air on cable channel 12 on Thursday, November 8, at 6:30 p.m.

Special guests of Mayor William Oakley will include Romulus Fire Chief David Allison, who will talk about this year's Goodfellows drive, as well as John Wester, Dan Benke, and other Romulus Little League Football board members and players, who will discuss how to get involved with their volunteer organization.

A special segment of the show will recognize Romulus men and women who are serving in Afghanistan, and consider the formation of a care program for them.

Anyone who would like to be present when the program is taped must be seated in the Council Chambers at Romulus City Hall (11111 South Wayne Road, at Goddard) by 6:15 p.m. Beginning at 6 p.m., home viewers can ask questions of the Mayor and his guests by calling 734-942-7571. □

Ceremony Dedicates New Elementary School

The October 30 dedication of the new Romulus Elementary School was well attended, reports district spokesperson Dick Kruse. Students, parents, and numerous area dignitaries enjoyed the historical occasion as the Romulus Community Schools celebrated its first new school in 25 years.

As they walked from the parking lot to the school entrance, guests were greeted with musical selections performed by the Romulus High School Marching Band. Once inside, they were given building tours by special student guides, then escorted to their seats in the gymnasium.

Romulus Elementary Principal Lynne Mossoian welcomed everyone and led the "Pledge of Allegiance." Mossoian then introduced sixth-graders Tiara Moton and Carmen Collie, who gave an impressive vocal rendition of "America."

Speakers at the event included Superintendent Joel R. Carr and Board of Education President Alan Lambert. Carr pointed out many of the school district's points of pride and emphasized its award-winning Fish! motivational program. Lambert congratulated the citizens of Romulus for supporting the construction of such a fine new school. continued on page 8

Ground Broken for New Development Project

The Highland Development Company, L.L.C. – a developer of commercial property and single-family homes – has announced its plans to construct "The Highlands of Romulus," a 135-home single-family development that will include commercial buildings and a new day-care facility. The development will be located on Pennsylvania Road, midway between Inkster and Middlebelt roads.

David Levy, Director of Development for the LKV Group (a partner in Highland Development), reports that the company will be building new homes that range in size from 1,450 to 1,850 square feet. Prices will start at $180,000.

"We love to work in Romulus because business is conducted in a professional manner and the City meets its deadlines," said Levy. "For a builder, that's everything."

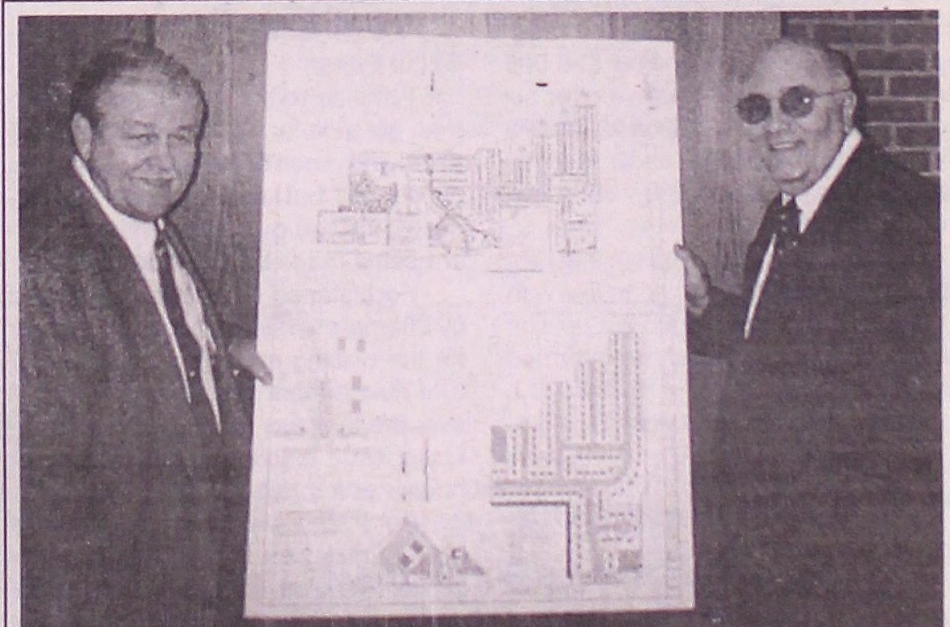

Levy went on to state his belief that the construction of new subdivisions elsewhere in Romulus would not limit his company's ability to sell houses.

"Quite the contrary; homeowners are scrambling to buy in Romulus," he explained. "The future of this entire area is here."

Highland Development officially began its project with a ground-breaking ceremony that was held on Thursday, November 1.

By December, a new retail office should be set up at the site so that prospective owners can place their order for a home and discuss their new neighborhood with current and new residents, alike. □

Romulus Mayor William M. Oakley (left) and David Levy, Director of Development for the LKV Group, examine the artist's rendering of the site plan for the new "Highlands of Romulus" subdivision. Houses will range from 1,450 to 1,850 square feet, and start at $180,000.

'Sound Off' Irresponsible

Editor's note: The following letter, reprinted here at the request of Mayor William M. Oakley, was sent to Mike Wilcox, publisher of Michigan Community Newspapers' Romulus Roman, on October 17, 2001.

Dear Mr. Wilcox:

I have always believed that the "Sound Off" portion of your publication is irresponsible journalism. I feel this way because it is a convenient, anonymous forum for callers to take unsubstantiated cheap shots at others. At the very least, your paper should correct misstatements of fact when the truth is easily obtainable.

I am writing today as a result of two items in The Romulus Roman dated October 11, 2001.

One caller to Sound Off voiced his/her outrage that I would "falsely" claim endorsement from the Teamsters. I do have such an endorsement. I have enclosed herewith a copy of the Letter of Endorsement, which I received from the Michigan Teamsters Joint Council 43. Please note that Joint Council 43 represents twenty-one (21) local unions.

A second caller attacked me because of the $19,000 raise that I allegedly received last year and the $38,000 that I supposedly will receive over six years. City financial records, readily available to the public, show that my raise last year was $3,000, with a six-year total of $7,834.

As a public official, I realize that I am open to personal attack. I can live with that. What I am unwilling to put up with are attacks from the grossly misinformed or outright liars.

Mayor William M. Oakley
City of Romulus

Mary Oakley Speaks Out

To the Citizens of Romulus:

I am writing to you as the wife of Mayor Bill Oakley. During our 51 years of marriage, I have been by Bill's side through many elections. This is the first time that I have felt compelled to speak out publicly during one of my husband's campaigns.

It is very difficult to see the unwarranted personal attacks that have been made against my husband during this election. If all of you knew Bill Oakley as his family and friends do, this election would be a cakewalk.

Bill Oakley loves the City of Romulus. He believes strongly in its citizens and its potential. I have lived, firsthand, the sacrifices made by my husband for Romulus and its citizens — meetings three or four nights a week, late-night phone calls, vacations not taken because of "City business." All this, and much more, we have made a part of our lives for decades because of Bill Oakley's dedication and commitment to Romulus.

I have chosen to support my husband through all these sacrifices, both large and small, because Romulus is such a large part of the man I married and have loved for over half a century. I support him because Romulus is part of Bill Oakley.

Bill is a man who never puts personal gain first. Sometimes he makes a decision that a few might not agree with, but that comes with the territory. No one, however, has ever questioned his integrity or character!

In closing, please examine closely the empty promises, false claims, and ugly insinuations made by Bill's challenger. Compare these to Bill's proven performance and experience. This election is not a popularity contest or beauty pageant. It is about the City of Romulus and its future, and who you trust to maintain them.

Mary Oakley

"Promises" Questioned

To the Editor:

I realize that it has become common practice for politicians to promise voters the moon and the sun in order to get elected, but I am absolutely flabbergasted by the outrageous claims that are being made by some candidates.

For instance, is anyone really fooled by attempts to blame Mayor Bill Oakley for the closing of the downtown IGA? City government had no more control over the success or failure of that particular store than it has over any other private enterprise.

If anything, we should be grateful to Mayor Oakley for bringing more housing to Romulus. It is only through the addition of these "rooftops" that our city will be able to attract and support more retail business in the future.

Mayor Oakley worked hard to plant the seeds for our growth. He deserves to be the one to reap what he has sown.

Just remember that when Alan Lambert promises to use "existing resources" to bring shopping to our city (as he does in his campaign literature), what he's really promising is to build on the foundation that was laid by Mayor Oakley, and then claim all the credit for himself.

Richard Downes

Oakley = Integrity

To the Editor:

I am one of the many people who grew up in Romulus, moved away for a short time, and returned.

I have also been upset, like others, about the negative things being said about Mayor William Oakley and the City of Romulus. No matter what these people may say or how they try to twist things around, they cannot change the facts.

Romulus now has:

- a full-time fire department,
- new subdivisions,
- road improvements,
- new equipment,
- a Youth Assistance Program,
- permit fees being paid by the airlines,

- improvements to the police department (which was also developed by Mayor Oakley),
 - improvements in City senior-citizen programs,
 - a Mayor's Chair cable TV program, and
 - a $4-million Department of Public Works building, completely paid for, at a cost of only $300,000 to the City.
- We now have these things and many more with no increase to our taxes. In fact, our taxes were decreased for two years and our city is again financially sound.

Mayor Oakley is a strong supporter of volunteer efforts in Romulus, as evidenced by the Mayor's Drug Task Force, Romulus Ministerial Association activities, Red Cross Relief Fund drives for New York, and more. He is also an ardent supporter of the annual Pumpkin Festival and Parade of Lights.

Mayor Oakley is definitely a person of the utmost integrity. What he does for Romulus, he does from the heart.

WHO HAS EARNED YOUR VOTE FOR MAYOR?

It all boils down to one simple question:

Which candidate is the
BEST QUALIFIED?

OAKLEY knows FINANCE

Mayor Oakley has 12 years of experience in developing and implementing budgets on behalf of the citizens of Romulus. In fact, he has been such an effective custodian of our tax dollars that the City has maintained a balanced budget for the past five years.

Mayor Oakley is the only candidate who has been praised by Standard and Poor's for his financial management skills, which resulted in our city's improved bond rating.

The challenger's experience in dealing with multi-million-dollar budgets has been limited to voting for their approval or denial.

So who is the best qualified?

The answer is as simple as the question:

✓ Mayor Bill Oakley

BECAUSE ACTIONS

RE-ELECT

"Pinnacle" Won't Put Romulus On Top

By Barry Baumann, candidate for the Romulus City Council

In the last several issues of this fine paper, I have attempted to share some of my ideas with the residents of Romulus. I have already discussed my plans for a recreation center and for senior-citizen housing and services. In this issue – the final one to be published before the November 6 election – I would like to discuss youth participation and the proposed Pinnacle Project.

First, it's no secret that our future lies with our young people. That's why it's distressing to note how few of them become involved in City functions. To deal with this problem, I would like to see Romulus establish a Youth Commission that would meet periodically with City leaders to give their valuable input on issues that are important to young people. After all, how can we expect them to be involved in the City if they feel shut out? As other segments of the population have positive ideas to share, so, too, does today's youth. Let's give them a chance to help build a better, more positive community.

Secondly, as I went around the City, speaking with residents, I found that hardly anyone has heard of the Pinnacle Project that's being proposed by Wayne County, let alone knows what it's about. To all concerned citizens, I say: You had better look carefully at whom you elect to Council, for they will have the ultimate say in this matter.

The Pinnacle Project calls for the commercial and business development of about 1,800 acres of land in both Romulus and Huron Township. Over the last few years, the County has acquired much of the land in this area through purchase – especially in high-noise areas near Metro Airport – and through the condemnation of homes and other property.

Unfortunately, there is a real potential for trouble concerning the way that the project's costs and "tax proceeds" would be distributed. Wayne County has already captured $50 million from the "stadium fund" – which was used to develop Comerica Park for the Detroit Tigers baseball team – through the "tourist tax." The County further expects that both Romulus and Huron will grant 12-year tax abatements to any development going into the area. Finally, as proposed today, Romulus and Huron would retain only the tax revenue that was generated by these properties prior to their development. Any "new" tax monies would be captured by the County. That could add up to tens of millions of dollars.

Still another matter of concern is our city's right to determine the planning of the project's Romulus portion, since projections indicate that upwards of 80,000 trucks per day could stop within this "corridor" between Canada/Detroit and Chicago, due to the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA).

Although the Pinnacle Project, in concept, could bring benefits to our city, there is too much "fine print" involved in the current proposal. I am strongly opposed to the condemnation of the property of Romulus residents, especially since it appears that the County is not offering a fair price for it. At a meeting with the City Council this summer, County officials refused to divulge answers to pertinent questions that were asked. Such "secrecy" is deplorable.

Should Romulus residents select me to represent them on the City Council, rest assured that I would in no way support any proposal that would affect residents adversely. I am not opposed to progress, but any progress we make must have purpose and benefit our entire community. □

Taking Steps To Ensure Preparedness

By Representative Raymond E. Basham

The world has changed in profound ways for every American since the tragic events of September 11. The devastating attacks on the World Trade Center and Pentagon forced our nation to confront the shocking reality that terrorism poses a threat to us all, no matter where we work or live. During the past two weeks, media reports of anthrax cases in several cities have further escalated our collective anxiety regarding the potential threat of bioterrorism and the use of biological, chemical, or nuclear weapons of mass destruction by our enemies.

In response to this national crisis, Americans have rallied with expressions of patriotism, national unity, and bipartisan cooperation. We have taken great pride in the extraordinary acts of heroism and self-sacrifice displayed by police officers, firefighters, emergency medical personnel, and ordinary citizens.

President George W. Bush has cautioned Americans that the war against terrorism will be a long and difficult campaign. The federal government has adopted several important measures to support that effort, including the establishment of the Office of Homeland Security within the White House. Your state government is also taking measures to protect public health and safety and our state's infrastructure. Following is a review of new and ongoing initiatives.

Emergency Management Plan

Maintained and updated annually by the Michigan State Police Emergency Management Division under the authority of the Michigan Emergency Management Act (Act 390 of 1976, as amended), the Michigan Emergency Management Plan provides for the coordination of all state agencies and resources in response to any emergency or disaster, including acts of terrorism.

Michigan Anti-Terrorism Task Force

Established in 1996, the state's Anti-Terrorism Task Force consists of representatives from a variety of state and federal law-enforcement, environmental-quality, and public-health agencies. The Task Force meets on a quarterly basis to share information, coordinate planning, and provide recommendations to the Executive Office regarding anti-terrorism policies and legislation.

Domestic Preparedness Plan

The U.S. Department of Justice recently approved the state's three-year strategic plan outlining specific goals and objectives for achieving domestic preparedness. Michigan was one of the first five states in the country to submit its plan. The plan is based on an extensive assessment by 94 local jurisdictions regarding terrorism-related risks, vulnerabilities, and threats. Approval of this plan also qualifies Michigan to receive more than $5 million in federal grants to provide local first responders and hazardous-materials response teams with specialized equipment for handling terrorist incidents involving biological or chemical weapons of mass destruction.

Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC)

Legislation has been introduced for Michigan to participate in the interstate Emergency Management Assistance Compact, which provides a legal basis/operational system for states to assist each other in major emergencies or disasters, including terrorist attacks. Fast and flexible, EMAC supplements existing federal disaster assistance programs.

Statewide Mutual Aid Compact

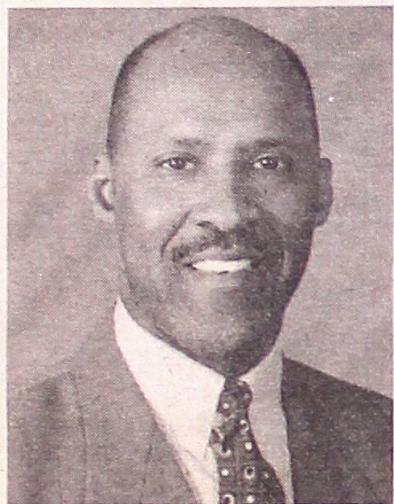

As a corollary to EMAC, the state is pursuing implementation of an intrastate Statewide Mutual Aid Compact under the authority of the Michigan Emergency Management Act. The Statewide Mutual Aid Compact would provide a legal basis and operation system for local jurisdictions within Michigan to assist each other in major emergencies and disasters.

National Guard Civil Support Team

The Executive Office of Michigan's Congressional delegation have supported the establishment of a full-time Civil Support Team within the Michigan National Guard. The Civil Support Teams receive specialized training and equipment for assisting state and local emergency personnel with detecting and responding to incidents involving chemical, biological, or nuclear weapons of mass destruction.

As you can see, your state government has been very proactive in taking steps to ensure Michigan's domestic preparedness. These programs involve unprecedented levels of coordination among a variety of federal, state, local, and private-sector agencies. Your cooperation and support are also vital. It is imperative that we all remain vigilant and alert without succumbing to hysteria or resorting to ethnic intimidation.

I appreciate people's interest and concern regarding our state's domestic-preparedness efforts. Please rest assured that every precaution has been taken to mitigate and respond to any terrorist threat in Michigan. Also, for additional information on frequently asked questions regarding the responsibilities and activities of key state agencies in America's war against terrorism, visit the state's updated Web site at www.Michigan.gov.

This is frustrating for developers, but they have gotten the message. All of the land north of the Airport, in the City's prime development district, is now under contract and scheduled for world-class hotels, office parks, and retail. There are also five new subdivisions under construction right now, so these retailers are going to see a lot more "rooftops." I am sure that Mr. Lambert's comments about a lack of retail and growth are based on misinformation because they are simply not true.

And I never get the feeling that the City employees and department heads whom I have dealt with were, in some way, not the "best people," as Mr. Lambert implies. I saw the same dedication in the eyes of the members of the Planning Commission, Council, and Zoning Board of Appeals. I don't think it is fair to suggest otherwise of these people. In fact, I recall many nights at the meetings of these bodies when my clients and I underwent intense and often heated questioning about the lack of an adequate number of restaurants and retail stores in a proposed development plan. The push for retail was not only the Mayor's concern, but was shared by all of his staff and the elected and appointed officials of your city.

After looking at Mr. Lambert's flyer, I wondered if he has ever met Mayor Oakley. No one who ever met and talked with the Mayor could come away with the feeling that he was a "pawn" of the County. I think the only reason the County and the City work as well as they do is because of the Mayor's reputation of going "nose to nose" with them for years, particularly over Airport issues. From this, I believe, a mutual respect was born.

In my view, Romulus is a few months away from the busiest construction season it will ever see, particularly north of the Airport. If your city changes administrations now, I would be concerned about what would happen to this golden opportunity. The lack of continuity and expertise, not to mention bringing a new administration "up to speed," could cause the City to take a huge step backwards. Against this backdrop, I do not believe that bringing in "a new generation" is an adequate reason to upset this firm foundation.

School Dedication

school. He also praised the recent accomplishments of Romulus students on the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) examinations.

After several additional musical selections were performed by various classes, the program concluded with the unveiling of a "dedication plaque" and an aerial photo of the school. Each student signed the outline of the photo and received a copy of another, which featured all 346 Romulus Elementary students outside the school entrance.

Later, guests were treated to a brunch in the school media center.

I do not mean to criticize Mr. Lambert, as I have never met him. However, I don't think he has the facts. And to be sure, I have the greatest respect for police officers, count many as my friends, and have had the privilege of representing many of their number. With all appropriate respect, however, I do not believe that a person who has served in the rank of patrolman for the last 14 years is the man to run your city at this critical juncture in its history.

Thank you for listening.

"Harassment" Charged

To the Editor:

As a concerned citizen, I would like to know what gives Mayor William Oakley and his wife the right to go into local businesses and harass workers and threaten to withdraw accounts for showing support for a rival candidate, such as Alan Lambert, by placing "Lambert for Mayor" signs at their place of business. It is our right as citizens and business owners of Romulus to choose whom we want to run our future in a free society and not under threats and intimidation.

"Flags" Letter #2

To the Editor:

At the Romulus City Council meeting on October 22, I asked Mayor William Oakley how he was coming on getting flags for Goddard Road. At the meeting before, he gave me and the City of Romulus his word that he would get flags and it would not be hard to install them. It is on the tape of that meeting.

His reply to my question at the meeting of October 22 was (very sarcastically), "We have flags in the windows of all our City vehicles, and that is as far as we are going to go."

Since then, I have seen three City trucks and eight police cars, which are City vehicles, and none of them had flags in the windows.

He went back on his word to the City!

Did he promise us flags just to appease me and get me away from the podium?

I think so.

WHO HAS EARNED YOUR VOTE FOR MAYOR?

It all boils down to one simple question:

Which candidate is the
BEST QUALIFIED?

OAKLEY knows PERSONNEL

Mayor Oakley, as the City's chief administrator, has 12 years of experience in this area. Under his stewardship, City services to the citizens of Romulus are performed both efficiently and economically.

Mayor Oakley is also adept at balancing the interests of taxpayers and City employees. In their last contract, Teamsters who are employed by the City of Romulus received their largest pay/benefit increase in the past 25 years. Mayor Oakley achieved all this without raising taxes.

The challenger has no experience whatsoever when it comes to managing and negotiating with employees.

So who is the best qualified?

Alfaye Woods (center) chats with the men most responsible for having the new school ready for its August opening: Don Morris (left), Director of Maintenance and Operations, and Bill Routhier, Director of Finance.

Joel R. Carr (right), Superintendent, welcomed his predecessor, Dr. William M. Bedell, to the ceremony. It was in 1999, when Bedell was serving his last year as superintendent, that voters passed the bond issue that financed the construction of the new school.

Lynne Mossoian (right), Principal of Romulus Elementary, welcomed the many students, parents, City and School officials, and other prominent citizens who attended the dedication ceremony, then led the group in a recitation of the "Pledge of Allegiance."

NCA Selects Romulus as a "Lighthouse" School District

With the Romulus Community Schools' recent selection as a "lighthouse" example for the North Central Association's prestigious Transitions Accreditation program, the district has already begun to receive visitors from other Michigan school districts that want to learn more about earning a similar accreditation status.

Recently, representatives from the Garden City, Lake Orion, and Southgate school districts met with Romulus NCA Coordinator Debbie Juriga and NCA officials Mike Bugenski and Bob Schramke for an orientation session.

"Many districts are looking into the Transitions Accreditation process, and want to find out how to develop and implement strategies that will result in successful accreditation for their districts," said Bugenski, NCA Director. "I inquired about using Romulus Community Schools as a 'lighthouse' example because it was the first district in Michigan to receive Transitions Accreditation for all of its schools."

Schramke also acknowledged the importance of having a role model for other districts, stating, "The five-year time period necessary to prepare for the Transitions Accreditation is a major effort by any school system. A successful application requires a long, dedicated effort by all staff members."

Bugenski thanked Superintendent Joel R. Carr and Chairperson Juriga for the warm welcome that they extended to the NCA and the visiting districts.

"It is really helpful to have Romulus as a role model as we prepare other districts for this new accreditation process," he noted. □

WHO HAS EARNED YOUR VOTE FOR MAYOR?

It all boils down to one simple question:

Which candidate is the
BEST QUALIFIED?

OAKLEY knows BUSINESS DEALINGS & NEGOTIATIONS

Mayor Oakley has over 50 years of experience in managing his own businesses. He also has 12 years of experience as the manager of the City of Romulus, which now has an annual operating budget of $18 million dollars.

Mayor Oakley's experienced negotiating ability, along with his tight-fisted fiscal program, are what make Romulus a city of progress.

The challenger has never managed a business and has no experience with complex business negotiations.

So who is the best qualified?

The answer is as simple as the question:

✓ Mayor Bill Oakley

Predatory Lending Victims Sought

Do you believe that a mortgage company or other lender has taken advantage of you? AARP (American Association of Retired Persons) of Michigan is collecting information to help fight predatory lenders in a campaign that includes consumer education, local ordinances, and state legislation.

Predatory lenders make unaffordable loans based on a borrower's assets, usually home equity, rather than the ability to pay. They often induce a borrower to refinance a loan repeatedly in order to charge high fees or points. Older citizens on fixed incomes are especially vulnerable.

Predatory lenders also work in conjunction with home-repair scam artists who often talk unwitting customers into expensive home modifications that require refinancing a mortgage.

People who have been victimized, or who know someone who has, should call AARP Michigan at 517-267-8913 or e-mail the group at miaarp@aarp.org. AARP can also mail callers a free borrower's kit that outlines strategies for avoiding predatory lenders.
